Du har lämnat in en ansökan om uppehållsstatus. I väntan på ett slutligt beslut har du med det här beviset rätt att vistas i Sverige i enlighet med villkoren i avtalet om Förenade kungariket Storbritannien och Nordirlands utträde ur Europeiska unionen och Europeiska atomenergigemenskapen.

Under tiden som du väntar på beslut har du samma rättigheter som en unionsmedborgare och kan resa in i EU och fortsätta att bo, arbeta och studera i Sverige. För dig som är viseringspliktig innebär detta att du fortsatt behöver giltig visering för att resa in i Sverige. Om du ska resa kan du behöva visa upp det här beviset vid gränskontroller, tillsammans med pass eller brittiskt nationellt identitetskort.

Certificate of application for residence status

You have submitted an application for residence status. With this certificate, you have the right to stay in Sweden until a final decision on the application has been made in accordance with the terms of the agreement on the withdrawal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland from the European Union and the European Atomic Energy Community.

While you are waiting for a decision, you have the same rights as a citizen in the EU and can travel into EU and continue to live, work and study in Sweden. If you are required to have a visa, this means that you still need a valid visa to travel into Sweden. If you are going to travel, you may need to present this certificate at border checks, along with a passport or UK national identity card.

Certificate of application under IS/LI/NO-UK Withdrawal Agreement

Fra: The Norwegian Directorate of Immigration (UDI) <noreply@udi.no>
Sendt: onsdag 16. desember 2020 16:05
Til: Test test
Emne: Receipt for submitted application

Receipt number for your application: oslopd-3141-EEA-20201216150428-A82184878

Dear Test Test,

This email confirms that you have applied for a residence permit as a UK national, or as a family member of a UK national, at our Application Portal. If you exercised your right of free movement and resided in Norway before 31.12.2020, you have the right to stay in Norway and to work in Norway until you receive a final decision. This is according to the UK- EEA EFTA Separation Agreement.

What should you do now?

- Some applicants will have to submit supporting documents. You need to upload these documents electronically. You will be notified by the police if and when you need to upload the documents. You will see a list of the documents you have to submit in the summary of your application. The summary is attached to this email.
- Save this email. This email document confirm that you have the right to stay in Norway and to work in Norway until you receive a final decision.
- If you are travelling abroad before receiving a new residence permit, you must bring this email. This email confirms your legal stay in Norway, and you may be required to show this document at the border. If you carry with you a printout of the document, this will help to make the border control procedure easier and avoid delays at the border.

Appointment with the police

When you apply for a new residence permit, either as a UK national or a family member of a UK national, the police will assess your application. If the police are in doubt about whether you can be granted a residence permit, they will forward your case to the UDI.

If you are granted a residence permit you will have to book an appointment with the police. The police will check your identity and relevant documents. If you are going to receive a residence card, the police will take your fingerprints and photo, and will then order a residence card.

Please be aware of this

If you have an illegal stay in Norway, you can be expelled from Norway and you may also be registered in the Schengen Information System (SIS). This means that you receive a decision from the UDI stating that you are expelled from Norway for one or more years. You will then be subject to a prohibition against entry and cannot return to Norway until the prohibition against entry has expired. If you are registered in SIS, it will not be possible for you to enter other Schengen countries either.

Best regards,

The Norwegian Directorate of Immigration (UDI)
